Dear (b) (6) - Privacy

Your correspondence about alleged sexual harassment at the office where you work, (b) (6) - Privacy, which was filed with the EPA through an electronic complaint mailbox, was forwarded to me for response.

I work for the External Civil Rights Compliance Office (ECRCO) of the Environmental Protection Agency. The ECRCO enforces laws prohibiting discrimination in programs funded by the EPA on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age and disability.

It does not appear from what you have written that the company that you work for is a recipient of EPA funding, thus it does not appear that ECRCO would be the appropriate agency to address your concern. However—there are other government agencies that enforce laws against discrimination based on sex within private companies of every type. Here are two that you may wish to contact:

- Washington State Human Rights Commission: <http://www.hum.wa.gov/employment>

The Washington State Human Rights Commission enforces the Washington State Law Against Discrimination - RCW Chapter 49.60 is a State law that protects all people in Washington from unfair and discriminatory practices in employment, real estate transactions, public accommodations, credit, insurance, as well as health care whistleblower, and state employee whistleblower complaints.

- U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission:
<https://www.eeoc.gov/field/seattle/charge.cfm>

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is responsible for enforcing federal laws that make it illegal to discriminate against a job applicant or an employee because of the person's race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information. It is also illegal to discriminate against a person because the person complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit. Most employers with at least 15 employees are covered by EEOC laws (20 employees in age discrimination cases). Most labor unions and employment agencies are also covered. The laws apply to all types of work situations, including hiring, firing, promotions, harassment, training, wages, and benefits.

I hope the above information is helpful and that you will successfully resolve concerns affecting your work-life.

Sincerely,

Debra E. McGhee

I leave and then I texted  and I requested a termination letter and would like to know in detail the reasoning for my termination and I requested it be signed and dated by the owners and himself. He agreed and said it was standard protocol and I would have it by the next business day. I have yet to receive anything.

(Please let me know if additional details are needed)
